PALLET TERMS AND CONDITIONS – DECEMBER 2023

---

Please ensure a copy of this document is forwarded to all relevant people involved in pallets process. Failure to follow policy below may result in rejection or correction of transfer to Coolway Trans Accounts.

The standard pallet requirements set out below apply unless a specific commercial agreement is in place.

1. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd only recognises CHEP wooden pallets (10001) and LOSCAM wooden pallets (WP) for the purpose of pallet transactions with our trading partners/customers. No other equipment will be accepted onto the Coolway Transport Pty Ltd CHEP/LOSCAM account.
2. The preferred method for the management of pallets is for the “sending customer” to transfer their pallets directly to their “receiving customer” where a pallet hire account is available (applicable to local and interstate deliveries)
3. If the “receiving customer” does not have a pallet account, then pallets maybe transferred to Coolway Trans Account when organised prior to delivery with Coolway Trans Pallet Controller. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd will only accept pallet transfers with a 30-day delay, effective from the date of delivery (conditions may apply) for receivers that do not have a pallet account. Transfers not processed with a 30-day delay will be corrected accordingly.
4. Transfers to Coolway Transport should be one transfer per order. No bulk transfers will be accepted, unless this has been pre-approved by Coolway Management.
5. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd reserve the right to pass on any day delays implemented by the receiving customer/trading partner to the sending customer’s account including but not limited to:
  - Bidfood, PFD, Metcash – where 45 days delay are required.

6. Pallets must be received in good condition; Coolway Transport Pty Ltd reserves the right to reject any damaged equipment.
7. Any unknown transfers onto Coolway Transport Pty Ltd account will not be accepted.
8. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd reserves the right to amend a transfer quantity when a discrepancy is identified.
9. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd reserves the right to correct, adjust or reject any transactions that they believe are incorrect.
10. It is the responsibility of the sender to raise and present a pallet transfer at pick up. All transfers being made onto Coolway Trans pallet Account must state Coolway Trans Connote/Manifest number or a reference number relevant / noted on the booking must be provided on pallet transfer docket in the "Reference" field of the docket. A copy of the docket is to be attached to the front of all paperwork and the docket number written on the con note. Consignments completed by Sender despatch area must have Chep/Loscam pallets clearly marked on Connote and the docket number listed in the body of the Connote Failure to include these details may result in rejection of claim until details are received.
11. If a pallet transfer docket is not presented to, signed by and a copy given to our driver or receivals staff at pickup/delivery, then no liability for the pallets is passed to or accepted by Coolway Transport Pty Ltd. Any unknown transfers onto Coolway Transport Pty Ltd account will be rejected.
12. Exchanges – whilst Coolway Transport Pty Ltd accepts that some receivers will not have pallet accounts and pallets will need to be exchanged on delivery. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd will not exchange on pick up and will not "run a book" on pallets picked up but not transferred on.
13. If pallets are required to be exchanged upon delivery the sending customer must ensure that empty pallets are available upon delivery to avoid a futile charge.
14. Freight for delivery to a location where pallets are deemed unrecoverable (EG: Showgrounds, Conventions, Export Freight or Community based events, or where no pallet accounts exist, freight must be on plain pallets as all transfers to Coolway Trans will be rejected.
15. If a receiving partner rejects a transfer or the pallets are unrecoverable, then Coolway Transport Pty Ltd reserves the right to transfer the rejected pallets back to the sending party's account.

16. CHEP pallets that are not recovered and hold an outstanding balance with Coolway Transport Pty Ltd (exceeding 7 days) will incur a daily hire fee of approximately $0.27 per pallet per day. If the outstanding balance, then exceeds 30+ days Coolway Transport Pty Ltd will invoice the cost of recovering pallets (approximately $55 per pallet) to the relevant customer/trading partner.
17. All pallet queries must be emailed to the relevant email address within a 90-day period of transaction; any queries outside of this time frame will only be investigated at the discretion Coolway Transport Pty Ltd management. Valid claims made within 90 days of the movement date will be accepted at original effective date. Claims older than 90 days, if accepted, will be at date of enquiry. Coolway Transport Pty Ltd will not be responsible or authorise any transfers/reinstatements/corrections processed outside 180 days.
18. All pallet queries are to be forwarded to Pallets@CoolwayTrans.com.au

Please sign below and return to Coolway Trans to accept our pallet terms and conditions, failure to sign will result in all transfers to Coolway Trans being rejected.
